BOOKS WORTH READING!

LOWER GRADES:
K-3

These books are not mere entertainment—they are parental and communal aids for teaching the design principles that guide the culture at Schoolcraft.

Stories that teach self-discovery, service and compassion, collaboration, empathy and caring, responsibility, perseverance and diversity support children through many different stages of life.

UPPER GRADES: 4-5

MIDDLE SCHOOL:
6-8

Read them with younger kids. Discuss them with older kids. Make it a family ritual to debate the substance of the story presented. Help your child discover the worth of the role model in each story and find themselves in each.
